

With a total subscription to the map more than $20,000.

As sharpshooters are clear eye and steady Indian renders him as a ra- a peer, the Commissioner can trained Indian marksman can the head off a bird to the full car- ing distance of his rifle, and there- were many of such qualifications among the Pershing fighters, he said In his report the Commissioner points out that he is not yet prepared to detail the individual exploits of his charges on the front. When the full story is told, he intimates, the feats of daring and courage of the American Indian, garbed in the uni- form of a United States soldier and supplied with modern military equip- ment, will be as thrilling and fas- cinating as the schoolboy tales of his ancestors who, bedecked with war paint and feathers and armed with bow and arrow, peopled America be- fore the white man dreamed of the existence of such a land.